

ST. PATRICK'S DAY; READING OF LIMERICKS

At this station, participants are given a printed limerick. They are simply required to read it.

The judge must keep in mind that there may be individuals who cannot read. In this case the participant can repeat the limerick one line at a time, as read by the judge. Also each limerick should be printed in extra large font to make for easier reading.

The judge decides how many limericks must be read, three is a good number. (unless the participant is not reading when one may be sufficient).

Once the participant has completed the limericks, give them the treat and directions to the next station.

Remember to initial their card !

There once was a man from Nantucket
Who kept all his cash in a bucket
His daughter, named Nan
Ran away with a man
And as for the bucket, Nan tucket

There was a young lady named Harris
Whom nothing could ever embarrass
Til' the bath salts one day
In the tub where she lay
Turned out to be plaster of Paris

There was a young fellow named Hall
Who fell in the spring in the fall
Twould have been a sad thing
Had he died in the spring
But he didn't He died in the fall

At times I'm so mad that I'm hopping
My arguments set my veins popping
I yell and I curse
With swear words diverse
But my wife does much more ... she goes shopping !

A patient who kept getting worse
Cried out, "I must go home now, nurse"
You did all your best
And performed every feat
But I've come to the end of my purse

There was a young girl from Ralat
Who had triplets, Nat, Pat, and Tat
It was fun in the breeding
But hell in the feeding
When she found she had no tit for Tat

There was an old man of Dumbree
Who taught little owls to drink tea
For he said, "To eat mice,
Is not proper or nice,
Plus it's gross as I'm sure you will see

A flea and a fly in a flue
Were imprisoned so, what could they do ?
Said the fly, "Let us flee"
"Let us fly", said the flea
So they flew through the flaw in the flue

There was a young lady of Niger
Who smiled as she rode on a tiger
They returned from the ride
With the lady inside
And the smile on the face of the tiger
